

Job offering

Title: Journalist / Radio Host

Status: freelance

Duration: from September 19, 2016 to July 28, 2017

Schedule: 25h / week

Compensation: $ 16/hour

CILS fm is the only Francophone community radio in British Columbia. Based in downtown Victoria on Vancouver Island, it is broadcast on air and online. The station has a mandate to promote and disseminate French culture, inform the community and strengthen ties between its members.

CILS fm is looking for a Journalist / Radio Host to host a weekly bilingual one-hour radio show offering reports and segments allowing to portray authentically both French and English communities in Victoria. This project is the result of an association between our radio (French speaking) and CFUV, the university radio (English speaking), both radios will broadcast the show.

Qualities, skills and knowledge:

- Bilingual (French and English)
- Enthusiasm and dynamism
- Diligence and professionalism
- Creativity, sociability and curiosity
- Initiative
- Fluency in computer programs for office settings
- Ability to plan and do research

Experience in journalism and/or radio hosting an asset.

Send your CV and cover letter, or request information to the following email address: dq@cilsfm.ca before September 9, 2016.